

Workshop Title: Debriefing in Simulation: Setting the Standard

---

Date and Time of Presentation: 11/18/2016 from 11 to 12:30 pm

Number of Continuing Education Hours: 1.5 hours

Description of Presentation: This presentation is intended to familiarize people with the INACSL standards and formal methods of debriefing. Transitioning to debriefing along with effective and ineffective methods will be covered as well.

---

Presenter: Rose Raleigh, MS, RN

Biographical information:

Rose Raleigh MS, RN is a faculty member at Century College in White Bear Lake, Minnesota, which is a part of the Minnesota Alliance for Nursing Education. Rose has eight years of experience in simulation and has given presentations on simulations at the local and state level. Rose is a member of the 2016 NLN Leadership Development Program for Simulation Educators cohort. Rose is currently researching the merits of having a statewide simulation for educators and industry partners as well.

Objectives for Presentation

1. Describe the criteria from INACSL Simulation Standard VI: The Debriefing Process
2. Discuss two methods of debriefing
3. State three signs of effective debriefing